Procedures for Review (Case of Standard Review)

<Timeline>

1. Complaint indicates intention of making a complaint
2. Consultation with procuring entity (Voluntary)
3. File a complaint statement into the GPRB
4. The GPRB sends a statement to the CGPR and the procuring entity
5. The GPRB determines whether to accept or dismiss
6. The GPRB notifies (5) to the complaint, the CGPR, and the procuring entity
7. Public notice of acceptance of the complaint (Participants invited to attend the challenge procedure)
8. The GPRB requests of suspension of the contract procedure to the procuring entity (Within 10 days from (3))
9. State its reasons to the GPRB if the procuring entity does not comply.
10. The GPRB sends the reasons to the complaint and the CGPR
11. Participants are determined (Deadline of notification to participate) (Within 5 days from (5))
12. The procuring entity submits its report to the GPRB (Within 14 days from (4))
13. The GPRB sends the procuring entity’s report to the complaints and the participants
14. Statements from the complaint and the participants, or request for examination by the GPRB (Within 7 days from (13))
15. Review of the complaint begins
16. Report of the examination (and the recommendation) drawn up by the GPRB
17. The GPRB sends the report of the examination (and the recommendation) to the complaint and the procuring entity and so on
18. The procuring entity sends its reasons to the GPRB in case of non-compliance with the recommendations (Within 10 days from (17))

(*) It may be different by a case because this is one of the cases of outline of the procedure.