Drawing on the lessons learned from the Great East Japan Earthquake, developing the "Guidelines on IT lifeline for Disaster Management"

Immediate aftermath of earthquake	Reco very ction
1. Disclosure and secondary use of government disaster information
2. Collection and public use of grassroots information	Dissemination of information on supports for disaster-affected people Development of recovery and reconstruction-support system DB
3. Development of an emergency dissemination/communications network	Rebuilding of community medical services Understanding mid- to long-term health
4. Extensive drills for information dissemination for disaster management	IT utilization support for disaster-affected people
5. Internationalization of disaster management information protocol	Revival of communities
6. Ensuring operation of information infrastructure during emergencies	